Bridge update - 091923

Dear Lenders,

Thank you for being so patient! This is a trying time for all of us, but the past week has brought positive developments:

- The authorities have filed charges against those responsible and under investigation over the past months. Please understand that there can be no details disclosed to us other than that. In light of that, we are asking you all to be calm and patient while they are moving forward so that a resolution for the rest of us is possible without any additional delays.

Appreciate you patience.
